Perhaps for Life By Neglecting Some Skin Trouble. Let Cuticura Take Care Of It.

"My little boy was taken with clear blisters on his face and body. The skin was sore and inflamed and he would scratch until it bled. I tried all the usual remedies but nothing would do. He was so fretful and cross and I never slept a bit. He did not sleep two hours during three weeks and he could not bear to have his clothing touch him."

"I tried every thing I knew of, but had no results. Then I sent and got a large cake of Cuticura Soap and a large box of Cuticura Ointment and now his skin is entirely healed, and I have no scar on him." (Signed) Mrs. Sannie Urban, Rt. 1, Adams, Tenn., March 7, 1916. She became clean and clear skin for your complexion than Cuticura Soap, assisted when necessary by touches of Cuticura Ointment. Unlike strongly medicated soaps which are coarse and harsh, Cuticura Soap is ideal for the complexion because so mild, so delicate and so creamy.

TESTED RECIPES

Fish Salad.

Mix together three table-spoons of olive oil, two of vinegar, a teaspoon of grated onion, a half teaspoonful of paprika, and pour over two cups of flaked fish; let stand an hour or two in a cool place. Turn upon a bed of crisp lettuce just before serving. Garnish with slices of pickled beets cut in various forms.

Current Raisin Jam.

Wash, drain, seed and chop two pounds of Muscatel raisins and place in preserving kettle. Meanwhile have ready, washed and stemmed, sufficient white currants to make three quarts of juice when mashed and strained. Add to this three pounds of sugar and stir the sweetened juice into the raisins. Mix well and let slowly come to a boil, skimming and stirring until it is thick and smooth. Let cool, place in jars and seal.

Cream one-quarter cup of butter with one cup of sugar, add one beaten egg and the juice and grated rind of one lemon and beat thoroughly; then add one egg each of chopped rhubarb and stoned raisins. Line a pie plate with paste, dredged with one level tablespoon of flour, turn in the mixture, cover with paste and cook.

A want in the Leader will sell it or rent it. Do it now!

OF LOCAL MOMENT

The auditorium at the city hall is being repainted and decorated. Morey & Winch are the artists on the job.

Logan county has 1,407 farm owners, and 916 tenant farmers, making a total of 2,323 in all, with a total of 342,095 acres.

With the air staying cool to near noon on the golf links, Sunday play is being resumed by many of devotees of the game.

There are two kleptomaniacs in Guthrie that give the police much trouble. "Guess we will have to send 'em to Norman," said an official today.

With but 187 acres of land in Logan county planted in peanuts, 94,135 pounds of the gubers were raised this year, valued at $3,605. Peanuts are a profitable crop and an almost sure one.

Jack Langston, county commissioner has returned from a trip to the east side of the state where he purchased a farm. "The country around Wagoner looks good and crops are better than in other sections," he said.

Twenty-two automobiles parties, bound for the mountains, passed through Guthrie today. All stopped off and took gasoline and supplies. Good roads into Guthrie have helped the city. Better roads next year will double the benefit.

With 1500 feet of 10-inch casing in the Carter test well now being drilled by the No. One Oil company, and the easy formation becoming less troublesome, it now looks like oil will be a possibility before Christmas. Then the fireworks.

Guthrie police are watching a gang of professional shoplifters that is operating in the state and who it is said is making this city headquarters. One shoplifter was caught red handed by the sheriff's office this week. The goods taken were returned.

"Sunday picture shows of the kind that are shown in Guthrie, are wholesome and should be encouraged rather than criticized," said a Guthrie church woman today. The lady is right in her deductions. Guthrie picture show owners are careful in the selection of their films and the Sunday pictures are frequently better than a sermon.

The sermon at the First M. E. church last Sunday evening on Socialism and the Church stirred up favorable and unfavorable comments and the one tomorrow night at the same place on the Social Mission of the Church will do you good whether you agree with the speaker or not. Has the church done anything for humanity? Come and see.

It is more than probable that by this time next year Guthrie will have its second cotton mill in operation. Certain it is that another one is coming. And also a cotton glove and stocking manufacturing concern. The two new industries will employ close to 700 people. The company is now being organized in New York City and Oklahoma people will be in it.

VAGRANT VERSE.

A THOUSAND YARDS OF TRENCHES.
By Sergeant Con.

North of the Somme the British took a thousand yards of German trenches in a night attack, the enemy offering desperate resistance.—News Item.

A thousand yards of trenches,
A million tears at home,
And red, red blood that drenches
The fertile Frankish loam!

A thousand yards of trenches,
A dot upon the map,
A thousand hearth fires flicker,
A thousand heart ties snap!

A thousand yards of trenches,
A thousand yards of hell!
The flesh of youth unquicken'd
By bayonet, shot and shell!

A thousand yards of trenches,
Ten thousand years undone!
The stone axe of the caveman
Replaced by steel and gun.

A thousand yards of trenches,
A thousand miles still held!
A thousand combats raging
Twixt Italy and Schelde.

A thousand yards of trenches,
The eyes of kings are dry!
But oh, the men and women
Who love, and fight, and die!

A thousand yards of trenches,
They took them in the night!
The dawn has not yet broken—
Oh God, let there be light.

A thousand yards of trenches,
A million tears at home,
And red, red blood that drenches
The fertile Frankish loam!

Sensation! See Leader what page.
